Enjoy an unforgettable experience inside
a real restaurant

For 2024, Alle due corti opens its doors to those wanting to experience a Cooking Class in Lecce, inside an authentic restaurant. But there's more.

The entire restaurant transforms into a Salento home, completely at the guests' disposal. Giorgio Grassi, the chef of Alle due corti, will be the expert guide to preparing lunch.

The day begins with handmade pasta. With Giorgio's guidance, guests get hands-on learning to make fresh orecchiette and much more. It's a time for chatting and joking in a cozy, familial atmosphere.

Next, participants move to the kitchen, where they cook seasonal dishes selected by Giorgio and the class. Starting from fresh ingredients, they recreate famous recipes from our Salento and Italian tradition.

To conclude, the table is set and the fruits of their labor savored. Throughout, Salento wines complement the dishes.

Our Cooking Classes do not include a market visit. The entire experience takes place within Alle due corti Restaurant, in the heart of Lecce's historic center. We prefer to focus entirely on the preparations, the stories related to the food, and the study of the recipes.

We offer an intense, convivial experience in a space designed specifically for Cooking Classes in Salento cuisine, enriched by Alle due corti's style of culture, tradition, and familial warmth.

Cooking Classes are held daily except Sundays in Lecce, at Corte dei Giugni 1 (corner of via Leonardo Prato). They start at 10:30 AM and conclude with lunch. Each class accommodates a maximum of 10-12 people.
